ANTIQUE REPRODUCTIONS

The iconic rug designs chosen for this collection reflect the masterful artistry and strong traditions of Persia and central Asia & and a progression of Oriental carpet weaving from nomadic tribes to small village ateliers to specialized city workshops. Many are faithful reproductions of the antique rugs often associated with the Ralph Lauren brand and its retail stores: finely hand-knotted wool classics from Heriz to Sultanabad and Serape designs. We also include the softly geometric Oushak patterns and Tabriz city rugs in lighter & feminine colors that complement today's lifestyle and fashion trends.

NEPALESE WEAVES

Soft & natural high mountain wool and organic viscose yarns are woven into stylized patterns using the ancient and highly-prized Nepalese hand-knotting technique. Yarns are hand-dyed in small runs & then hand-knotted and woven by rural artisans who sun-dry them on rooftops to further influence the subtlety and sheen of the colors. A glimmering depth is achieved through the use of cut-and-looped piles to accent textural motifs of these glamorous monochromatic designs.

FLAT WEAVE

Modern adaptations of the traditional flat weave carpets of India and Turkey & rugs in this series explore new fiber blends to create a range of fresh designs and colors. Woven by hand in the traditional manner & the flat weave collection includes several patterns in which wool and cotton yarns are combined to achieve a finer weave and softer hand than classic Dhurries and Kilim rugs. Another blend combines banana silk with a touch of cotton for a luxurious sheen and uniquely refined texture.
